Several local nonprofits are teaming up to raise funds through an exciting new event. Collaborative Christian Cards will be a play on a traditional "Poker Run" fundraiser, but open to all ages. The event will take place on Saturday, July 16 at various locations around the area. ATLAS of Sioux Center, Inspiration Hills, Justice for All Ministry, The Oaklyn Foundation and Siouxland Habitat for Humanity have been working for a while on a way to help spread the word about the unique impact they each have. Each organization has a different mission, but all are united in their Christian Foundation. Participants in Collaborative Christian Cards will begin the afternoon at 1PM and can start at any location on the path. Registrants will receive an information packet and will proceed to visit each of the remaining locations. Each stop will be hosted by one of the nonprofits. The run will wrap up at 5PM when all participants are invited to meet at the Children's Park Shelter House in Sioux Center for a free will donation meal from the Sioux Count Pork Producers. Registration is open online at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/collaborative-christian-cards-tickets-260264607447>

The cost per person is $50. All proceeds from the fundraiser will be evenly split between the non profits. For any questions about registering or for more information, please contact Emily Vondrak at Siouxland Habitat for Humanity at 712-255-6244X7.
